

ISSN : 2321 - 7847

EPRA International Journal of Agriculture and Rural Economic Research

Volume : 2 October- September 2014-15

A CASE STUDY ON SOCIO-ECONOMIC BACKGROUND OF SMALL-SCALE ENTREPRENEURS IN DAVANGERE DISTRICT

Ms. Salma Banu¹ & Ms. Fathima Zehra²

¹Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce, University College of Arts, Tumkur University, Tumkur, Karnataka.

²Guest Faculty, Department of Commerce, University College of Arts, Tumkur University, Tumkur, Karnataka.

ABSTRACT

The true supply of entrepreneurs and emergence of entrepreneurial development is conditioned by socio-economic determinants. There is co-relationship between them. Socio-economic variables like gender, age, educational qualification, family size, father's occupation and educational background, caste, family income, marital status, language etc. are the variables influenced performance of entrepreneurship. In the light of this study of the socio-economic background of the entrepreneurs has been made in the present study.

KEYWORDS: Entrepreneurs, Society, Industrial Sector, Industrial Entrepreneurship.