

EPRA Journals

EPRA International Journal of
Socio-Economic and Environmental Outlook

SJIF Impact Factor (2015) : 4.312

Vol. 3 February - January 2016-17

STATUS, STRUCTURE AND PROBLEMS OF ELDERLY

Anil N.Kosmakar¹

¹Associate Professor, PSS College, Pauni, Disst. Bhandara, Maharashtra, India.

ABSTRACT

Family, community and society is a particular triangle which bind to every person. As per the status, every person has to play his role and creates network of relationship in society. Childhood and youth stages are the energetic and different than other stages. Old stage is a decline stage in which man become down in physical, psychological and economical activities. In recent years, there is a significant advocacy efforts calling for enhanced international thinking and action on the human rights of older persons. Various stakeholders have called for more visibility and increased use of international human rights standards for old women and men.

KEYWORDS: male, female, society, present generation, Nuclear family