

THE VARIOUS PROBLEMS OF WOMEN AND THEIR EMPOWERMENT IN INDIA

Dr. A.D.Chauhan¹

ABSTRACT

After independence in India, there are the special women related articles created by experts. In the Indian constitution the principle of gender equality is enshrined with preamble, fundamental rights, fundamental duties and directive principles. The Constitution not only grants equality to women, but also empowers the state to adopt measures of positive discrimination in favour of women. Empowerment is the one of the key factors in determining the success of development is the status and position of women in the society. For the healthy development of society there is a need to special focus on social, economical and political overall development of women. We need to augment our efforts for empowering women and enhance their progress. It is our moral, social and constitutional responsibility to ensure their progress by providing them with equal rights and opportunities. Today women with their smartness, grace and elegance have conquered the whole world.
