

International Journal of Indian Economic Light (JIEL)

SJIF Impact Factor (2016):5.142

Volume: 6 |July – June| 2017 -18

THE LOST GLORY: FISHERMENMr. P. Justin Antony¹

¹Research Scholar, Center for Study of Social Exclusion & Inclusive Policy,
Bharathidasan University, Trichy, Tamil Nadu, India

Dr. K. Suriyan²

²Center for Study of Social Exclusion & Inclusive Policy, Bharathidasan University, Trichy, Tamil Nadu, India.

ABSTRACT

This paper depicts the present situation of the fisher folk in India particularly in Kanyakumari, and suggests the ways and means for their development. The perception is that, had there been timely moral and financial support to these anglers, there would have been more achievements in their life - social, academic, economic and political.

INDEX TERMS – Fishermen, backwardness, employment, potentiality.