ABSTRACT

Women's status is often described in terms of their level of income, employment, education, and health as well as their roles within the family, the community and society. In tribal communities, the role of women is substantial and crucial. Due to the lack of awareness about anything they could face several problems; hence there is need of training programmes which benefitted to them. Here in this paper based on primary data and collected information from Chitradurga District of Karnataka State. The study focused on the Role of Training Programmes in Creating Awareness among Tribal Women in Local Governance.
